PROCLAMATION THE CITY OF PARKER

WHEREAS a group of citizens has approached the City Council of the City of Parker, Collin County, Texas promoting the creation of a Parker Historical Society; and

WHEREAS preservation of the city's history through documents, photographs, and artifacts from the city's past is deemed an important project by the City Council.

THEREFORE, be it resolved by the City Council of the City of Parker, Collin County, Texas as follows:

1. The City Council supports the efforts of private citizens to gather, organize, and preserve the city's historical data as a private project conducted by those citizens who wish to donate their efforts to the project.
2. The citizens promoting the work of the preservation of Parker's history are welcome to return to council with the results of their efforts, and request an official designation by the City Council that the project be approved as a municipal endeavor of the City of Parker.

In the event this project is deemed by the Council at a future date to be a sanctioned city project, the Mayor and City Council may then determine any City commitment for storage space, funding, or other direct support.

Duly proclaimed by the Mayor with the concurrence of the City Council on this 1st day of March, 2011.

City of Parker, Texas

Joe Cordina, Mayor
