

Voter Registration Certificates

New certificates to be mailed in late April

Attention Voters: New voter registration certificates will be issued and mailed to all "Active" status registered voters in Collin County in late April.

You will automatically be mailed a new certificate as re-districting issues are settled. New yellow certificates will contain new district and precinct information that aligns with the re-districting, and will be mailed to you the last week of April, with an expiration date of Dec. 31, 2013.

This will be in plenty of time for early voting for the May 29 Primary election, so there's no need to worry.

If you'd like to make sure the Elections Department has your current address and information, you can check online at <http://www.collincountytx.gov/elections/index.jsp> through our Voters Registration Search. The inclusion of your name in this database indicates that your voter registration information has been processed.

For other Voter Registration issues, please visit the Elections Office Voter Registration Information page for further information.
